

Casualties in Sheridan's Battle on the 19th.News of the Week.

By Telegraph.

Montpelier, Oct. 20.

The excitement has somewhat subsided. A patrol was in the streets last night, and the State House is guarded by soldiers up to 4 A.M.

A bill to organize the Militia had been introduced into the House by Mr. Dyer of Rutland, an hour or two before the issue of the raid was received.

No important business has been transacted since.

Washington, Oct. 21.

Several naval officers have reached here to-day, direct from Richmond. They were confined at Andersonville, and give accounts of the terrible suffering of our prisoners. Nearly one-half of some regiments are entirely dead.

The Richmond Examiner of the 18th says a cartel has been agreed on, and 10,000 of our men will be exchanged at Charleston. Nothing is known of it here.

Richmond papers of the 18th pretend to describe the fleet which, they say, is now out in Hampton Roads to attack Williamsburg.

Sheridan's victory is represented by persons from his army as most complete. Over 2,000 prisoners were captured. Negotiations of our to-be received.

A grand celebration over the election took place here to-night. The procession was very large.

New York, Oct. 22.

The correspondent is in New York, with our forces, and can tell you all about it. He says that the rebels have kept up their supply line, Sherman having got Georgia, and that Sherman's position will be safe.

Gen. Howard turned from his experience in New Orleans to take command at Key West.

It was reported that Assistant Surgeon General C. H. Smith had been captured.

Another correspondent says:

"A general engagement between the rebels and Union forces will be dangerous.
